

SERVICES

DAVID AIMONE PHOTOGRAPHY

January 22, 2010

We can take old original prints, slides or negatives and give them new life by removing marks, folds and scratches, enhancing or correcting color and increasing definition and contrast.

Photo Restoration

Portrait work, in the studio or on location—we are able to provide custom work in digital and/or film.

Portraits

Studio product photography for your web site or brochure, documentation of art objects or workshop events—available at any location.

Commissioned Photography

Contact David Aimone Photography for more information on these services.
